GOVERNOR FOLSOM

TIGERS WILL PLAY FLORALIA IN NIGHT GAME

Governor James E. Folsom has accepted an invitation to attend Elba High School Homecoming this week which has been arranged as a special tribute to the class of '27, of which the governor is a member.

The governor's acceptance was contained in a call from Ed Brown, press secretary for the governor, to the committee in charge, saying that he would attend with Mrs. Folsom. The time of his arrival was not stated but he hopes to be here in time to join in the parade.

Homecoming will begin officially Friday at 2 p.m. with a parade. The parade will be in the theme "Shades of '27-27" with scenes reminiscent of this 30-year span portrayed from the marching first graders to this year span portrayed from the GAME AT 8 P.M.

The spirited battle on the gridiron begins at 8 p.m. when Elba meets Floralia. The coaches and team predict a great game for the Homecoming fans.

A warm welcome has been extended to everyone to attend the reception in the school cafeteria immediately following the ball game. The gym will be open at the same time to offer a party atmosphere for guests and dancing.

Rejoicing as Queen of the 1957 Homecoming will be presided by Mrs. Mary Spinks and Frances Barlow.

FLORALIA, ELBA SEEK VICTORY'S FIRST VICTORY

The Floralia Wildcats under coach Hugh McCreary will journey to Elba Friday night to give battle to the Elba High Tigers in their Homecoming game. The contest should be interesting as the two teams are very evenly matched. Potshots have an 0-2 record for the season, and will be looking for their first win. Kickoff time will be at 8:00 in Elba Stadium.

Prospects look good for the Elba team, for most of the players are back in school after a bout with the flu that caused the postponement of the Elba-Enterprise game. After hard practice this week the boys should be back in good shape and ready to play Friday night.

Failure to report income above the legal limits will be costly to veterans or their survivors receiving pensions, Harry A. Smith, manager of the Ala. VA regional office said.

Through the Keyhole

BY MRS. ROBERT CANNON

BRIDAL COLORS of pink and green were used in the decorations when Mr. and Mrs. Jim Diamond were entertained at a seated dinner Saturday, Sept. 21, in the private dining room of Padgett's Restaurant. The after-rehearsal party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Prescott, Mr. and Mrs. Will Koutirick and Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCurley.

The tables, covered in white linen cloths, were arranged in a horseshoe shape with the wedding party seated in the curve. Miniature colonial nosegays of white and pink carnations were placed on beds of delicate fern which ran down the center of the tables. The center table held two single pink tapers in pink Bisque holders from which fell clusters of grapes. The side tables, each held two silver candelabra in which burned four pink candles.

The hues of the candelabra were enriched with tiny carnations and ferns.

Attending, other than the wedding party, were Rev. and Mrs. Murray Seay, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Richburg, of Goshen, Mrs. Bonneau Rowe, Miss Carolyn Howell and Mr. Jim Patrenos, and Mrs. Bill Sanders and Mrs. Jack Ruark of Pensacola whose husbands served as ushers for the wedding.

WARM LIGHTS reached out from the night making the house seem a refuge against the darkness. Card tables covered in fine linen cloths were set with thin crystal and gleaming silver in the dining room the table was laden with dishes to please a gourmet. As are all parties in this home, it was an evening to remember.

Since the male guests included such football enthusiasts as Frank Rainer, Fred Clark, Roy King, Ralph Powell, Joel Murphy and husband Bob there was a great deal of divided opinion over the televised football game. We women were much more interested, however, in talk of houses, children, and the fact that Dottie Powell can "pull-up" in her play pen.

We hope our congenial hosts will entertain again soon.

SIXTEEN is such a nice age and another one of our fine young girls has celebrated her eighteenth birthday.

Patsy Sellers, only daughter of Myrtle and Chick Sellers was entertained with a formal dance given by her parents at their home Oct. 18.

On the menu were tall pink candles and colonial arrangements of lilies were used throughout the house. The dining table was covered with a pink cloth which fell to the floor. White net ruffles bordered the edge of the table. Each corner was marked with a large bow of pink ribbons whose streamers fell down the skirt. Dainty white flowers were tied

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. William Gray Howell of Kinston announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Carolyn (above), to James Patrenos, of Elba, son of Mrs. H. T. Savis of Apalachicola. The marriage will take place at the First Baptist Church Oct. 17, at 4 p.m. The public is invited.

Miss Howell is a graduate of Kinston High School and Birmingham Baptist School of Nursing and was also affiliated with the ribbons.

A crystal punch bowl held pink punch and was encircled with ferns and flowers. Large trays held cakes and cookies which, since Myrtle is one of the best cooks we know, were the highlight of the evening.

Patsy looked very pretty in a gown of white net, over taffeta. The dress was fastened with a fitted bodice trimmed in rhinestones. White velvet straps crossed the shoulders and tiny ruffles encircled across the bouffant skirt.

The guests were: Madelyn Brunson, Sue Morrow, Sandra Farris, Janice Paul, Betsy Jacobs, Luvina Holloway, Rhetta Ann Crook, Diane Kirkland, Margaret English, Carolyn Watson, Linda Crook, Virginia Lee Dorsey, Susan Murphy, Judy Peavey, Jimmy White, Tommy Vaughan, Johnny Miller, Billy Mock, Fred Tillman, Lavahia Padgett, Wayne Morley, Sammie Casey, Wayne Devine and Jerry Brooks.

CONGRATULATIONS go across the water to Gemma and Fraser Ringsdorf who are the proud parents of a little baby girl in Turkey. She has been named Mary Emaline, bearing both her mother and her paternal grandmother's names. Having seen Gemma's picture we know that this little newcomer must be very pretty. We know she also inherited the gentle manner and soft voice of all the Ringsdorf men.

ANOTHER home recently brightened by the arrival of a small bundle is that of the Bubba Warrens, who are now living in Elberta. They have named their young son Thomas.

Adeline and Cecil Present visited the Warrens this past weekend and say that they are enjoying their new hometown. They have a nice home directly across the street from the school where Bubba coaches. Sounds ideal.

WIDOWS BENEFIT

Women who are at least 62 years of age might be well advised to contact their social security office. Under the new social security law, benefits are payable to the wife of a retired worker, or to the deceased worker, or to the working woman herself upon retirement at age 62 instead of age 65, Harry Scott, District Manager of the Dothan social security office said today.

The First Baptist Church in Baytown, Mississippi, was the setting for a lovely wedding Saturday afternoon, September 14, when Miss. Charlotte Lollar (above) of Biloxi and Paldwyn, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alger Lollar of Baldwin, and Buddy Clark (above) of Biloxi, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clark of Kinston, Ala., pledged the sacred vows before a large assemblage of friends and relatives.

Rev. Gene Crawford, pastor of the church, officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Clinton Samsom, organist, and Buddy Spight, soloist. He sang "Because" and "Wither Thou Goest".

Vows were exchanged before a beautiful background of candelabras holding lighted white tapers and large baskets of gladioli and asters.

The bride was a picture of loveliness as she entered the church with her brother, Wilford Lollar of Kinston, who gave her in marriage.

She wore a wedding gown of chintilly lace over nylon, tulle over satin, fashioned with full skirt, ballerina length, with deep ruffles of lace falling gracefully from the shoulders and down the front.

Her veil of illusion cascaded from a Juliet cap of lace, encrusted with aquines and pearls. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls and she

VARIED EVENTS ARE MARKED BY HOMECOMING HERE TONIGHT

Varied festivities marked Elba High Homecoming here last Friday beginning with the annual Homecoming parade through Elba streets, and appropriate decorations in the store windows and elsewhere about the city.

Six floats and several cars carrying officers of various clubs and organizations in the parade were gaily decorated with the theme "Shades of 1927-1957" as the long parade led by the Elba High School band under direction of Robert Hall, moved through the city streets.

A great contribution factor to the Tigers' win was the fine line play throughout the game. Good blocking and tackling which had been missing from previous games was clearly present in the Elba forward wall.

Standouts in the line were Griffin, Fuller, Taylor, Brunson, Weeks, Maudlin, and Casey. Backfield standouts were Russell, Nelson, Wise, Thomas, McCollough, and Earl McCollough. Altogether, the game was a fine example of team cooperation.

CONSERVATION

By T. C. Self & Joe Widman

Progress in soil and water conservation is evident on every hand. Land too steep or droughty for profitable crop production is being planted to grass or pine trees. Terraces are constructed with grass waterways and field borders, to help water walk off slowly rather than run off swiftly.

Winter cover crops are planted on much of our land each fall and winter. This keeps our topsoil where it belongs, protective and profitable. A inch of unprotected soil can wash off in one big rain. It takes nature hundreds of years to replace this 1 inch of soil. Each person who owns land is responsible as to whether that land is to be good productive land for the children and grandchildren or whether it is just an area that holds the world together.

The following have recently asked for assistance on terrace and waterway construction in West Coffee: Isaac B. Smith, Robert Wise and Clayton Grimes.

BEES WIN OVER ENTERPRISE BT 7 TO 0 SCORE

The Elba Baby Tigers of Coach Bill Travis won their first game of the '57 season here Monday night by defeating their cross-county rival, Enterprise, by a score of 7-0. It was a very evenly matched game with both teams playing fine football. Coach Travis said he considers it as the best high school football game he has seen played so far this season.

The Tigers' only score came in the first quarter when Virgil Boutwell blocked an enterprise punt on their 30-yard line. End Wayne DeVine recovered for Elba on the visitors' 10. In two more plays, late handoff from the quarterback Jack Flowers, the Elba signal called, built over the extra point on a quarterback sneak.

In the third quarter, End DeVine caught a pass on the Enterprise 40. Just as he was tackled, he lateraled to halfback Bobby Inman, who carried the ball to the visitors' 10 yard line. Then the Wildcat defense tightened, and held the home squad to five yards in the next four plays. Elba threatened a gain in the last quarter, but were held by a strong Enterprise line. The visiting team never seriously threatened the Tiger goal.

Ends Wayne DeVine and Bobby Inman, Tackle Henry Clark, Guards Clevie Taylor and Donald Crocker, and Center Virgil Boutwell were standouts in the line, while Quarterback Jack Flowers and Halfback Michael Corbett and Tom Dyess performed well in the secondary.
